Website review:

Web-Mistress Cindy Amrhein reviewed her on-going development of the GAHWNY website. She encouraged members to send her materials for inclusion on the website, including pictures. Cindy noted that books can be sold through the website.

New business:

Susan Conklin indicated that four of a possible five speakers have been identified for the Fall general membership meeting. They are Pam Brown, who will speak on education projects; Craig Braack, who will speak on cemeteries; Michele Henry, who will speak on the County Home in Chautauqua County; and Doug Goller, who will speak on the War of 1812.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:23 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Larry D. Barnes, Secretary
